

Essay Contest

When I went to Disney world I had to decide to take or leave my stuffed animal because what if I lose it, I can't sleep without it but if I take it I can sleep. Another example about Disney world was bringing my dog if I can't bring him so I had to leave my feelings for him behind so I would not miss him.

